

On Saturday 23rd February 13 young people and 2 leaders travelled from Central to Bicester for the Acts 29 Northamptonshire District Youth conference. The theme of the day was 'Be courageous.' Around 100 young people from all over the District took part in Worship and workshops based around this theme. The opening worship was led by Jasmine Yeboah who is the Youth President of the Methodist Conference, Jasmine gave an inspirational talk about being Courageous and recognising that God calls us no matter how old we are. Other special guests that shared the day with us were, Revd Michaela Youngson, the President of the Conference, Revd Helen Cameron, the Chair of the District and Thelma Commey who is next year's Youth President. The day was made up of games, crafts, Drama and workshops. The workshops were aimed at equipping our young people to be courageous to share their Faith, read their Bible, lead worship and to put their Faith into action. The day finished with a drumming workshop and Worship led by Revd Peter Powers. Everyone that attended had a brilliant time. The pictures are of our young people with Jasmine and Thelma
